HARAMAYA UNIVERSITY

HISTORY OF ETHIOPIA AND THE HORN

Mid-Exam Practice Questions

Name: _____ ID: _____

1. Ardipithicus ramidus kadabba (dated 5.8-5.2 million years BP) was discovered in:

a. Dikika, Mille, Afar in 2000.
b. Aramis in Afar in 1994.
c. Anchar (in West Hararghe) in 2007.
d. Middle Awash.

2. Whih of the following discovery evinces the existence of Neolithic material culture?

a. Laga Oda rock shelter near Charchar.
b. The Gobodara rock shelter near Adigrat.
c. Aqordat and Barentu around Adigrat.
d. Zebu (Bos indicus) cattle that in due course expanded to West Africa.

3. An eco-fact named as Australopithecus garhi (means surprise in Afar language) dated to 2.5 million years B.P was discovered at:

a. Bouri
b. Turkana
c. Lower Omo
d. Yabello

4. Which language group belongs to Semitic family only?

a. Gofa, Banna, Murle, Wolane
b. Wolayta, Ari, Zay , Burji,Konso
c. Zay, Harari, Silte, Wolane
d. Keficho, Korete, Yem, ma'o

5. Which of the following is an example of a secondary historical source?

a. Biography
b. Photograph
c. Minute
d. Manuscript

6. The period of usage of stone tools in which there was sex-age labor division with males as hunters of fauna, and children and females as gatherers of flora:

a. Mesolithic period.
b. Neolithic period.
c. Cenozoic period.
d. Paleolithic period.

7. "History is the only significant storehouse of information available for the examination and analysis of how people behaved and acted in the past." Which of the following arguments best supports this statement?

a. History provides a sense of identity and helps understand current world situations.
b. History helps develop tolerance and open-mindedness.
c. History is essential for understanding the origins of current problems and making informed decisions.
d. History supplies endless sources of fascination and teaches critical skills.

8. How might a historian use the concept of periodization to study the development of political systems in Ethiopia and the Horn?

a. By analyzing the religious beliefs and practices of modern Ethiopian communities.
b. By focusing on the interaction between humans and their environment in the present state.
c. By examining the continuous process of change in political systems over time.
d. By studying the agricultural practices of ancient Ethiopian societies.

9. Which one of the following is incorrect regarding continuities and change?

a. Society in Ethiopia and the Horn of Africa remains similar and continues to have distinctive characteristics.
b. When historians talk about continuities, they imply that a particular pattern applies to everyone in the world.
c. Historians note that, certain aspects remain more or less the same for a long period since few things ever change completely.
d. When historians discuss continuities, they do not claim that absolutely nothing changes in the patters they describe.

10. Which stone tools were produced by indirect percussion, by using hand-ax or hammer, and mainly characterized by bifacial, pointed and convex features?

a. Obsidian
b. Mode II
c. Mode III
d. Mode I

11. In which region is the language Nbugua primarily spoken?

a. Kenya
b. Tanzania
c. Ethiopia
d. Sudan

12. What is the primary climatic characteristic of the vast Eastern lowland environmental zone of the Horn region?

a. Hot and dry conditions year-round
b. Seasonal monsoons with regular rainfall
c. Cold with heavy snowfall
d. Tropical and humid

13. What is the significance of the Fandanano practice among the Hadiya?

a. It is a rain-making ritual.
b. It is a thanks giving ceremony.
c. It is a harvest festival.
d. It is a ritual to honor ancestors.

14. How do linguistic and cultural affinities contribute to the social fabric of the Horn of Africa?

a. They create clear ethnic boundaries.
b. They are irrelevant to social organization
c. They facilitate interaction and weaken ethnic divisions.
d. They lead to isolation among different groups.

15. Which of the following best explains the distinction between 'the past' and 'history' as described in the text?

a. The past is studied by historians, while history is studied by scientists.
b. The past is a collection of artifacts, while history is a collection of documents.
c. The past is infinite and history is finite.
d. The past refers to events that have happened, while history refers to the accounts of those events.

16. One is not Neolithic material Culture site in Ethiopia and the Horn

a. Lega Oda
b. Aqordat
c. Lalibela cave
d. Kibish

17. What was a significant outcome of the decolonization of African historiography?

a. A focus solely on colonial narratives
b. An increased reliance on Eurocentric perspectives.
c. An urgent need to recast historical records and explore pre-colonial civilizations
d. A disregard for oral histories

18. Among the uses of history … "Studying different societies in the past is like going to a foreign country, which contributes to free ourselves from some of our inherent cultural provincialism" shows?

a. History helps to develop tolerance and open mindedness.
b. History provides a sense of identity.
c. History supplies endless source of fascination.
d. History teaches critical thinking.

19. Which spirit among the Oromo is associated with victory?

a. Jaricha
b. Balas
c. Gijare/Nabi
d. Chato/Dora

20. Which document serves as an example of a travel account contributing to Ethiopian historiography?

a. James Bruce's "Travels to Discover the Source of the Nile"
b. "Zikre Neger"
c. "The Chronicle of Abeto Iyasu"
d. "Ye Ityopiya Tarik"