MORAL AND CIVIC EDUCATION

Mid-Exam Practice Questions

Name: _____ ID: _____

Instructions: Choose the best answer for each question.

1. According to deontological ethics, all are CORRECT regarding what makes an action right or wrong? Except

a. The intentions and duties behind the action

b. autonomy

c. The laws of nature

d. the happiness you produce

2. Which of the following best describes the ethical focus of Meta-ethics?

a. Creating universal moral rules

b. Determining the most virtuous action

c. Focusing on consequences to maximize societal benefit

d. Evaluating moral judgments' truth and origins

3. Which of the following BEST reflects the central principle of hedonism and non-hedonism ethics?

a. The action itself holds intrinsic value regardless of outcomes.

b. The consequences of an action determine its moral worth.

c. The morality of an action is determined solely by the agent's intention.

d. Actions are judged by their adherence to a set of pre-established rules.

4. Identify the wrong statement from the provided alternatives regarding to egoism theory

a. If you don’t take advantage of a situation, you are foolish.

b. If I mistreat others, they mistreat me, so I resolve to behave myself.

c. Egoism do not recommend helping others

d. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

5. In Ross's framework, which of the following is considered a prima facie duty that obligates one to repair harm caused by a previous action?

a. Duty of Gratitude

b. Duty of Non-maleficence

c. Duty of Fidelity

d. Duty of Reparation

6. Which of the following is NOT a correct definition or feature of ethics?

a. the code of a given group serving as a guide to right or wrong

b. Ethics evaluates human actions based on standards of good and evil

c. Ethics helps people examine values like honesty, justice, and equality

d. Ethics is the study of what is morally right and wrong

7. Which principle of Kant's categorical imperative requires us to act according to a maxim that rightness or wrongness remain common to everyone at everywhere is?

a. The Principle of Universality

b. The Principle of Autonomy

c. The Principle of Humanity

d. The Principle of Beneficence

8. Act-utilitarianism is most vulnerable to criticism due to its reliance on:

a. A rigid, rule-based system of moral decision-making.

b. The difficulty of calculating consequences for every individual act in real-time.

c. For the long-term consequences in favor of immediate satisfaction.

d. The lack of consideration for majority rights and freedoms in morality

9. The consequentialists' anticipation is to produce the greatest happiness to the greater number of people, but the Bentham's and Mill's assumption to obtain pleasure follow different means. Pick the correct one

a. For Mills, pleasure is summing different acts to maximize

b. For Bentham, Pleasure can have quality in which everyone should have highly favored

c. For mills, it's only human being to enjoy quality of pleasure which is preferable

d. Higher order pleasure leads to pain if overindulged

10. Which one of the following is not the measure of quality over quantity according to Mill's choice?

a. Certainty

b. Power

c. Intellectuality

d. Self-realization

11. Let say, a state adopt homosexuality is legal. Then, based on this argument morality and law are opposite in that:

a. Punishment for violating moral and law differs

b. Some actions that are immoral may be legal

c. Moral conducts may be illegal

d. Some actions that are illegal may be moral

12. According to Almond and Verba's typology of political culture, which of the following BEST reflects the behavior of citizens living in a parochial political culture?

a. Citizens have interest on politics and rarely engage on political decision making

b. Citizens mostly care about their family and have no concern and know-how on government actions.

c. Citizens closely follow government policies but avoid participating in elections.

d. Citizens actively engage in public debates, elections, and influence political decisions.

13. Which ethical theory is concerned with whether moral judgments can be true or false?

a. Meta-ethics

b. Cognitivism

c. Virtue Ethics

d. Non-cognitivism

14. According to Ross, which duty emphasizes the importance of not causing harm to others?

a. Duty of non-maleficence

b. Duty of Fidelity

c. Duty of Justice

d. Duty of Beneficence

15. Virtue ethics focuses primarily on:

a. Following a set of predefined rules

b. Cultivating a good moral character

c. Calculating the best outcome for the greatest number

d. Balancing benefits and harms in actions

16. The development of self-creation and independency by following the rule of Kant refers to:

a. Principle Universality

b. Formal rules

c. Autonomy

d. Heteronomy

17. Which of the following is NOT considered a virtue in virtue ethics?

a. Reparation

b. Courage

c. Generosity

d. Compassion

18. Which scenario BEST illustrates utilitarianism?

a. Helping a friend expecting a favor in return

b. Sacrificing one innocent life to save hundreds

c. Donating anonymously to charity for personal peace of mind

d. Following the law without question

19. Let say. A lawyer chooses not to report her corrupt boss because doing so would cost her job and destroy her career. Instead, she stays silent to protect her self-interest. According to ethical egoism, how is the lawyer's action best described?

a. Morally wrong because she allowed corruption to continue.

b. Morally wrong because the law requires reporting crimes.

c. Morally acceptable because she prioritized her own welfare.

d. Morally wrong because she feared revenge/retaliation

20. Which of the following best describes the maximal concept of civic education?

a. Focuses mainly on teacher-centered instruction

b. Extends learning beyond the classroom

c. Focuses on classroom learning and examinations

d. focused to teacher and students interaction in the class

21. A young medical doctor must choose between working in her poor hometown for low pay or accepting a high-paying job abroad. What would altruism suggest the medical doctor should do?

a. Wait until the hometown offers him a higher salary.

b. Accept the higher-paying job abroad for personal success.

c. Leave and send financial help from abroad.

d. Stay in his hometown to serve and help others despite personal sacrifices.

22. The non-normative ethics that study about meaning of ethical concepts is,

a. Metaphysics

b. Cognitivists

c. Meta ethics

d. Non-cognitivists

23. A pharmaceutical company rushed the production of a life-saving vaccine during a deadly pandemic. In their hurry, they skipped some clinical trials to meet public demand and save lives quickly. Millions were vaccinated, and the spread of the disease slowed. However, later it was discovered that a small percentage of recipients developed serious side effects. From a teleological point of view, was the company's decision morally good?

a. No, because they violated medical procedures and risked lives.

b. Yes, because it is a formal government rule to do in that manner

c. Yes, because the action resulted in saving millions of lives despite minor side effects.

d. No, because their intention was driven by profit.

24. What distinguishes the enforcement of laws from the enforcement of ethics in society?

a. Ethics has no enforcement mechanism at all.

b. Laws depend on religious institutions for enforcement, unlike ethics.

c. Ethics is enforced through social approval or condemnation, while laws use the coercive power of the state.

d. Ethics and laws are both enforced through imprisonment and fines.

25. Which philosopher is most closely associated with the development of virtue ethics?

a. John Stuart Mill

b. Aristotle

c. Immanuel Kant

d. W.D. Ross

26. Scholars wrote that, the creation of a good citizen in a society primarily depends on:

a. The wealth and resources of a state

b. The development of the qualities of its members through education

c. Strict rules and punishments

d. The natural birth of responsible citizens

27. One of the following is in line with the end justify the means

a. The source of morality is God

b. Do whatever is most loving

c. Morality is associated with laws of Nature

d. We all are capable of reasoning in the same manner and on the same level

28. One of the following ethical approaches is odd based on the philosophical school of thought

a. Utilitarianism

b. Egoism

c. Deontology

d. Altruism

29. Which of the following duties according to Ross involves promoting the well-being and improvement of others?

a. Duty of Justice

b. Duty of Beneficence

c. Duty of Reparation

d. Duty of Fidelity

30. Virtue Ethics is to development excellent trait of character. The prominent writer of this assumption was,

a. Immanuel Kant

b. J.S. Mills

c. Aristotle

d. Jeremy Bentham